Seasonal Exposures in the Spring

The spring season is filled with anticipation for warmer weather — and the many events and opportunities that come with it. Did you know USLI can offer general liability and professional liability for a number of our products, and a few products cover multiple classes of business? Continue reading to learn more about popular exposures at this time of year and highlights of placing the business with USLI.

SEASONAL SPOTLIGHT

Concessionaires, vendors, mobile food and merchandise trucks, mall kiosks, seasonal lots, commissary kitchens, office/warehouse locations

USLI PRODUCT HIGHLIGHTS

▶ General liability limits up to $5 million
▶ Blanket additional insured available
▶ Multiple locations
▶ Monoline or package with inland marine coverage for trailers, food and inventory available

---

Contractors, artisans, janitorial, landscapers, "mow and blow" operations, arborists, forestry consultants

▶ Over 40 eligible classes under the trades industry, including soft and hardscape landscapers, landscape architects, "mow and blow" operations with incidental cleanup
▶ General liability coverage with options for blanket additional insureds
▶ Waiver of subrogation
▶ Primary and noncontributory language
▶ Ability to add inland marine option for contractors' equipment
▶ We can consider professional liability coverage for arborists and forestry consultants, along with many other specified professions

---

Special events, including weddings, parades, fundraisers, golf outings, recitals, festivals and over 100 other classes of business

▶ Quote, bind and pay option
▶ Separate limits for general liability and liquor liability (if needed)
▶ Blanket additional insured available at no additional cost
▶ Waiver of subrogation
▶ Primary and noncontributory language
▶ Products coverage included in general aggregate
▶ Rain date coverage available for events rescheduled due to inclement weather

---

For more information on our products or to obtain a quote, visit usli.ca or contact your underwriter today.

888-523-5545 | USLI.CA